- What should a church leader do and not do
- Paul gives pastoral advice

Chapter	Summarization
1 Timothy 1	Paul opens by explaining that the church is like a body. He prays that they will understand God as a being, His promise, his power and his authority over heaven and earth.
1 Timothy 2	He then gives instruction on the worship of God, teaches about the will of God and how should a woman of God act.
1 Timothy 3	Paul lays out the qualifications for pastors and deacons in the church. He finishes by giving a synopsis of Jesus' earthly ministry.
1 Timothy 4	Paul warns Timothy against false teachers, instructions on what to do and not do concerning Christian ministry and discusses being a good servant.
1 Timothy 5	He tells them how to treat older and younger men, older and younger women, widows, and church elders.
1 Timothy 6	Paul tells the workers to give faithful service to their masters, teaches about the wicked, the wise and the wealthy. He finishes his letter by giving pastoral advice to Timothy.
